The Morning Session

How To Successfully Chart Your Course In Accordance With U.S. Law (Recommended for Chinese Companies)

Foreign companies doing business in the United States face a wide range of challenges to entering the marketplace, but with the appropriate counsel these can be easily navigated.

The Morning Session offers your company an exciting opportunity to learn practical strategies to meet the intricacies of U.S. and state laws. You will learn what you need to do to be successful in the lucrative U.S. market.

Topics to be discussed include:

- Bringing your managers to the United States in compliance with U.S. immigration laws
- Establishing your U.S.-based operation: locating and negotiating for space and setting up best practices for HR, payroll and administrative functions
- Guiding your management on hiring, employee counseling and termination
- Counseling foreign multinationals on U.S. labor and employment issues
- Safeguarding your brand and intellectual property through Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainability Programs
- Understanding corporate compliance
- Navigating the intricacies of international trade practices and customs laws
- Protecting your company's proprietary information and trade secrets
- Dealing effectively with court litigation and arbitration
- Understanding employee health insurance and retirement plans: administration and regulation
- Considering opportunities to acquire U.S. companies

In one morning, you will become acquainted with the U.S. laws and practices that affect your business and learn how to guide your company through this ever-changing landscape. The seminar will be interactive, allowing you to pose questions to the attorneys and have your specific concerns addressed. PowerPoint slides are presented in English and Chinese.

The Afternoon Session

Investment Opportunities For American Companies In China (Recommended for American Companies)

Following a complimentary buffet lunch, EBG attorneys will be joined by colleagues from our Chinese law firm affiliates to take the mystery out of doing business in China for American companies seeking investment opportunities overseas.

Topics to be discussed include:

- Exploring the most suitable vehicles and structure in doing business in China
- Understanding corporate social responsibility and social compliance standards
- Facing the challenges of China's newly adopted Labor Contract Law
- Introducing current banking and insurance law and regulations in China
- Working through the intricacies of Intellectual Property
- Introducing China's Anti-monopoly Law and its practice
- Exercising due diligence over the extraterritorial application of Foreign Corrupt Practices Act compliance and other extraterritorial US laws

In one afternoon, you will learn first-hand from experienced EBG attorneys and Chinese practitioners how to successfully overcome the legal complexities of doing business in China. We hope you can join us.

*There is no fee to attend this event.
Complimentary Breakfast, Buffet Lunch and
End-of-the-Day Wine Reception will be provided.*
