About the speakers series

Singapore's Prime Minister, Mr Hsien Loong Lee, called upon the country's citizens and residents to continue making Singapore a "City of Possibilities and a home for all" in his National Day Rally Speech on August 19 2007.

Don't miss the opportunity to hear the first-hand accounts of three successful Singaporean entrepreneurs who have made Singapore their very own city of possibilities. Join us to find out why they chose to base their global businesses out of Singapore and how working and living in Singapore have allowed them to tap on the country's and the Asia's dynamic growth.
